Step past the gates of 246 Riverside Drive and leave the city behind. This stately, Georgian home will make you forget that you're just steps from Bloor West Village. A perfect combination of a prime Toronto location and private country estate. This 0.7 acre property backs onto the Humber River, with a private boathouse and dock to enjoy along the riverbank.

This expansive home is incredibly unique. With countless luxuries and features at every turn and a floor plan that combines old world charm with modern lifestyle. Live your culinary dream with two kitchens on the main floor. And enjoy the options of the formal and casual living and dining rooms. The walk-out lower level is perfect for family and entertaining. A main, open games room features a stunning wood and stained glass bar, fireplace and lots of space for numerous lounge areas, billiards and more. There's also a home gym, which includes a large sauna and not one, but
