Your Coastal retreat from the high-tech world. A rare opportunity in Half Moon Bay, to own a 3,440± square foot, front-row, ocean bluff home with stunning ocean views! Feel the sea breezes. Taste the salt in the air. Listen to the ocean. These are everyday pleasures when you live in this house. This 4 bedroom, 3.5 bathroom home also has a look-out loft, and a permitted ground level in-law studio with its own entrance. You will enjoy the unique character and feel of this home which features high ceilings, hickory, oak and knotty pine floors, tile entry, lots of natural light, and a large ocean view master suite with a built-in redwood hot tub room. This property overlooks the blufftop and Coastal Trail, and is a short distance from downtown Half Moon Bay. Its westside location, south of Highway 92, allows for an efficient commute access to the Peninsula and Silicon Valley.
