Nestled on a sought-after cul-de-sac, on what the Toronto Star has called one of the city's best streets, this renovated three bedroom, two bath family home is situated in fantastic Davisville Village and top-rated Maurice Cody school district. The home features a custom eat-in kitchen with gorgeous cabinetry, granite counters and stainless steel appliances, plus a walk-out to a cedar deck and landscaped garden. The second floor has three spacious bedrooms and the master features a double closet with built-in organizers. The luxurious bathroom has beautiful tiles and counters, plus double sinks and a soaker tub. The basement has been dug down, waterproofed and fully renovated with plenty of built-in shelving and storage, not to mention a cozy gas fireplace with a barnboard surround. Conveniently located just steps to the TTC and a short walk to the shops on both Bayview and Mt. Pleasant, this home is a must-see!
